This book is dedicated to the students, faculty, parents and friends who have played a part in the history of Orange High School, 1918-1972.

One of the highlights of Orange's last homecoming was a surprise assembly with the faculty showing what homecoming used to be like. Here Queen Dot (Mrs. Miller) is surrounded by her attendants and the football team of yesterday.

Orange High—1972

Another homecoming specialty was the antique cars used to take the queen and her court around the field.

Although the weather was sometimes bad, the crowds came out for the football games.

Psychology students spent a few days in the library playing with tinker toys and then assessing their work behavior together.

At the Sadie Hawkins dance, the punch table was a favorite of some of the shier boys.

The teachers were available during their lunch hours to discuss class work with the students.

Some of the teachers found a few minutes of quiet in the lunchroom--until the camerman arrived.

Tape recorders were used by several students in various classes to help with their homework.

Al Slade, a Co-op student, sometimes had to use wrenches for his schoolwork--a job with a local business.

Regardless of the amount of work, none of the Orange students came through the years looking like this.

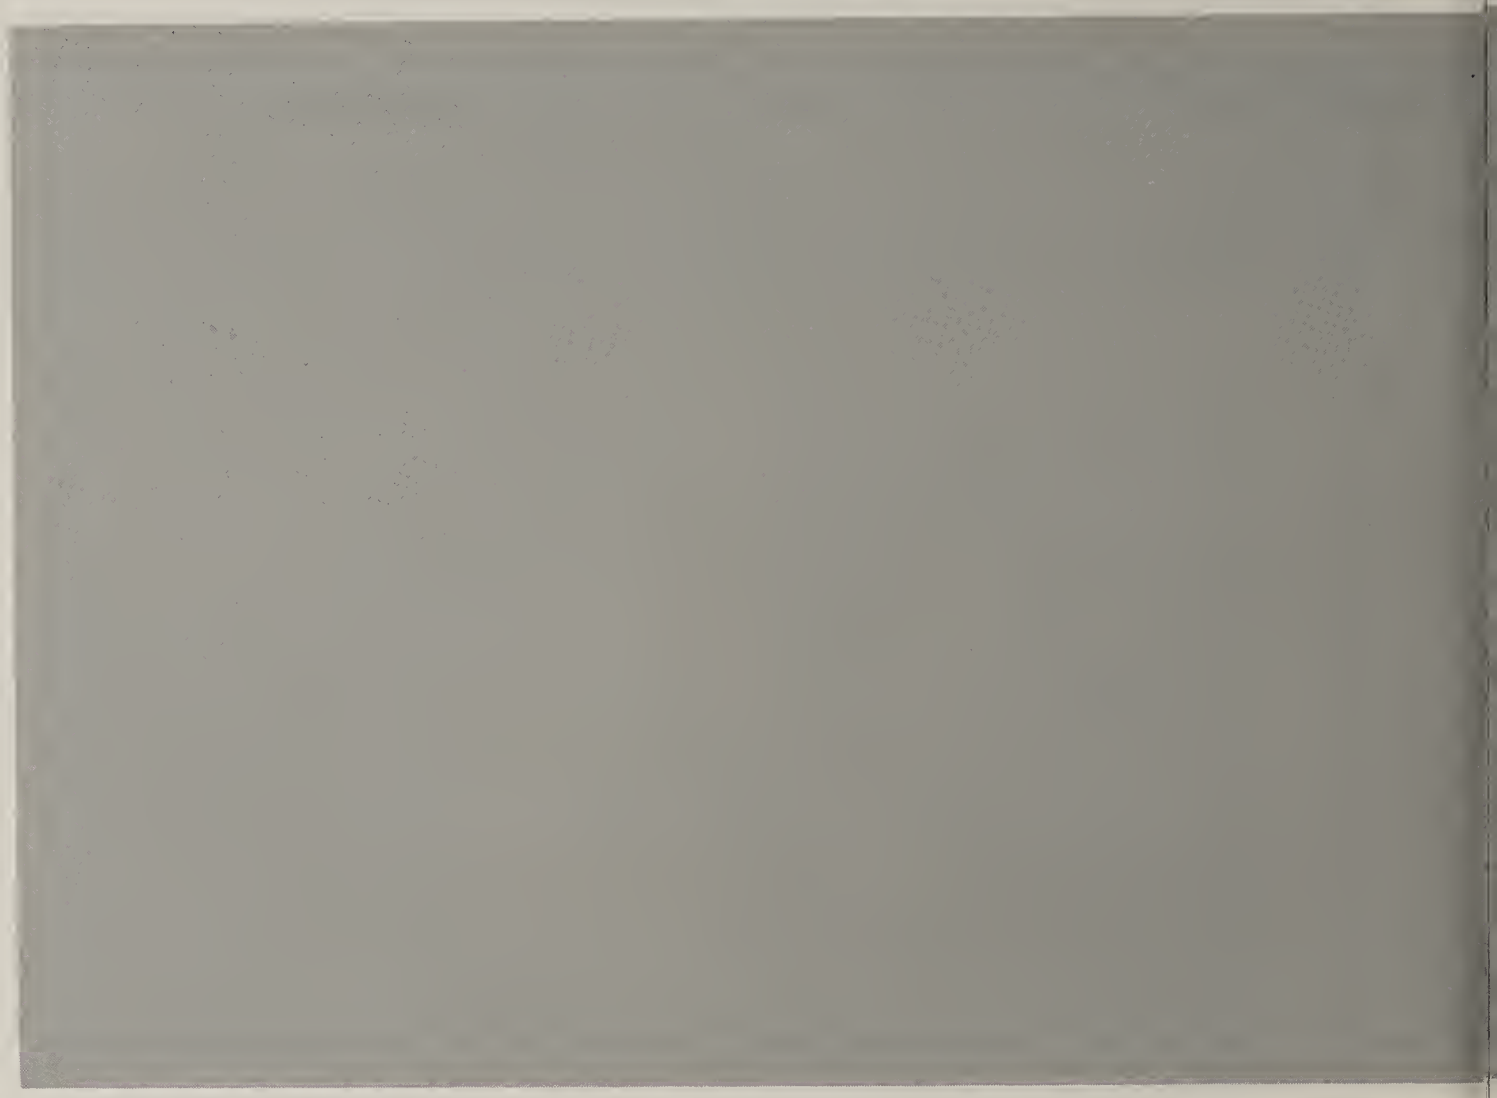
Activities



Homecoming 1971

"Memories of Yesterday . . . Thoughts of Tomorrow" was the theme for the 1971 Homecoming. The whole week was exciting and eventful as the Orange High students celebrated the last homecoming at Orange. Orange was defeated in the exciting football game against Grundy Center who won with a score of 26-6. After the game the Homecoming Dance was held. The students all enjoyed dancing and visiting with the music of Big Louie in the background. All in all, it was a great Homecoming to remember!

Homecoming queen, Marcia Wier, junior.

Queen Marcia and her attendants begin the dance.

The queen was announced at an assembly before the game. Marcia Wier is being escorted by junior letterman, Rex Foster.

Deb Loy, Senior

Jean Schneider, Senior

Jackie Snyder, Senior

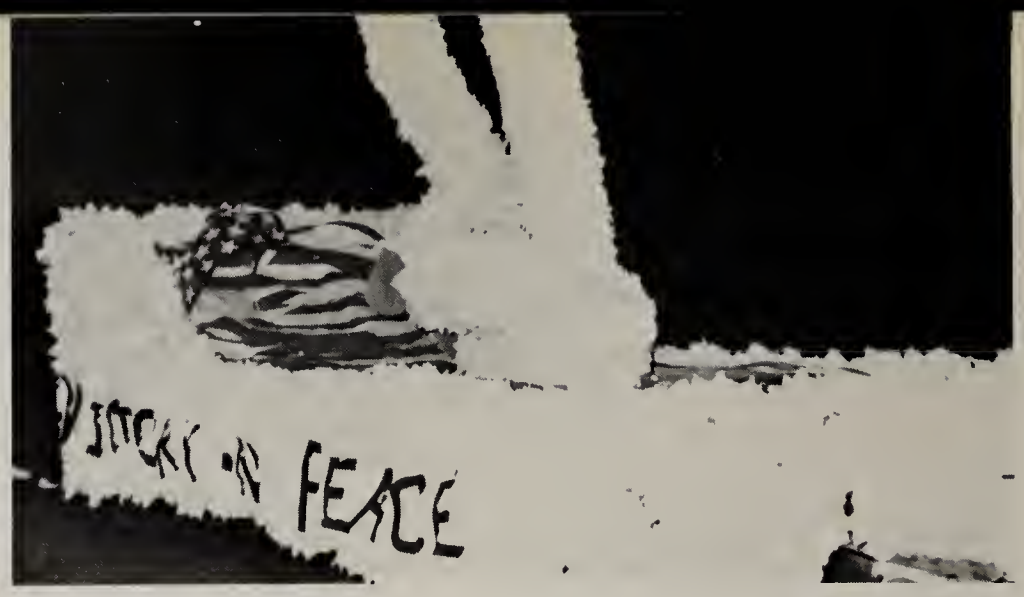
Val Hickock, Junior

Deb Crowl, Sophomore

Julie Osmundson, Sophomore

Deb Kerr, Freshman

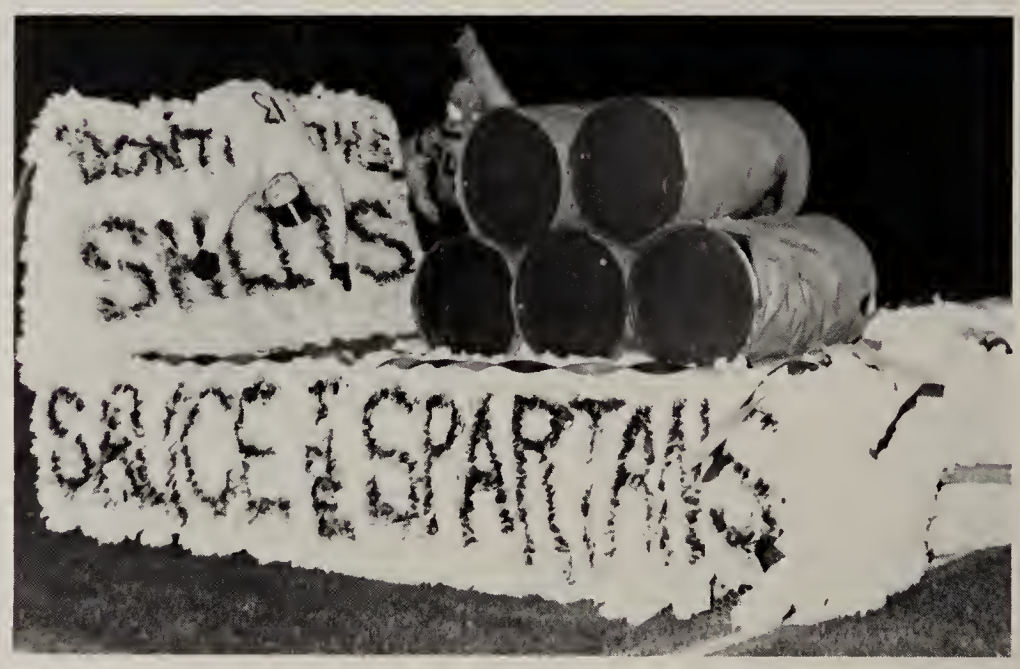
Chris Moore, Freshman



"Victory and Peace in '72" was the theme of the first place senior float.

"Tigers eat everything but de-feet" was the theme of the fourth place junior float.

The sophomores came in second place, with their float: "Spruce the Spartans".



In third place were the freshmen with their float: "Everready Tigers have Power to Spare."

The dance was enjoyed by alumni and students alike.

The student body was entertained by the faculty in an old fashioned homecoming pep assembly. Mrs. Meyer was one of the cheerleaders.

The queen and her court were escorted around the field in antique cars at half time.

Drama Night 3 "N" 1

Mr. Collins takes his turn at the black box.

The Lottery

The first of the three plays presented by Orange High School on November 4 and 5, was "The Lottery." Student director was Sue Fuller. Miss Roberta Ladd directed all three plays.

"The Lottery" is about a small town that follows an out-dated tradition. Every year on June 27, the families gather for the drawing. Tessie Hutchison is the unlucky victim to be stoned.

Tessie screams for mercy.

"Things ain't the way they used to be," says Old Man Warner.

Mr. Hutchison comforts Tessie, as her friends prepare to stone her.

The characters for the play are: Tommy Dunbar--Tim Helgeson; Dixie Watson--Lois Ludwig; Martin--Dave Rebik; Delacroix--Dana Peiffer; Hutchison--Andre Montgomery; Mrs. Dunbar--Chris Wagg; Mrs. Watson--Sue Theiss; Miss Bessom--Kenda Matthias; Jack Wilkins--Bob Schwake; Old Man Warner--Steve Chambers; Joe Summers--Dennis Jeffries; Belva Summers--Cheryl Baker; Tessie Hutchison--Tascha Smith; Davy Hutchison--Duane Steimel. Families: Allens: Kim Hoofnagle--Carol Larsen; Collins: Darrell Fraser--Kim Peiffer--Barb Campbell; Delacroia: Deb Donbert--Deb Siebel--Sue Bear; Graves: Dave Wagenknecht--Ann Thomas; Martin: Cindy Shirk--Cindy White; Summers: Diane Geissler; Townsend: Russs Stephens--Sue Hodgson--Ann Paggett--Fred Steimel; Vincent: Mary Meyers; Watson: Larry Matthias; Wilkins: Dana Nelson.

"We have to, it's tradition," says Mr. Hutchison.

Buzzie arrives with a headache, tries to comfort Cornelia, but ends up being a headache.

"Opening Night"

"Opening Night" was the second play presented. Student director was Russ Stephens.

The play takes place in Miss Skinners' New York home on the eve of her opening night. Many "friends" come to comfort Miss Skinner, but end up making matters worse.

The cast for the play was:

Cornelia Otis Skinner--Deb Donbert
Alden Blodget--Larry Matthias
Lila--Sue Hodgson
Buzzie Patterson--Deb Siebel
Mrs. Judson--Cindy Shirk
Mrs. Palmer--Ann Thomas
Patsy--Carol Larson
Jean--Dana Nelson
Thelma--Cindy White
Dodie Holliday--Kim Peiffer
Janice Uphom--Diane Geissler

Cornelia is bothered by three high school girls.

Cornelia leaves "unnoticed" to go to the theatre, while Alden is pampered.

Alden attempts to calm his wife.

Lila carries Buzzie's OVERNIGHT luggage.

Two unexpected "friends" arrive to welch a ticket.

"The Forgotten Man"

The third play presented was "The Forgotten Man." Student director was Sue Bear.

"The Forgotten Man" is a serious play about a young orphaned girl who finds friendship in a small rural church. The women of the town compete to receive the child. They do, only because "The Man" leaves, and she is left with them.

Rev. Benson tells Judith everything will work out all right.

Mrs. Lambert and Helen Mills think they are each capable of taking Judith.

Mrs. Lambert has a comforting chat with Judith.

Rev. Benson leads the congregation in a hymn.

The cast for the play was:

John Benson--Russ Stephens
Henry Lambert--Dennis Jeffries
Mrs. Lambert--Sue Fuller
Helen Mills--Mary Myers
Peter--Kim Hoofnagle
Judith--Barb Cambell
The Man--Dave Rebik

No one thinks the old man is capable of taking Judith.

Here come the cheerleaders!

The Donkey basketball game was Nov. 9, 1971, courtesy of the Annual Staff and the Athletic Department. The donkeys came from Bob Crosby's Donkey Basketball Co. of Chippewa Falls, Wis.

Joe Nelson has problems.

The Donkeys Came Back

Three games were played. The sophomores were defeated by the seniors; the freshmen beat the juniors. In the final game, the seniors played the freshmen. The freshmen won.

Is that really Tony Wilbur?

Peewee didn't care for Patty Steimel's methods.

Freshmen--Mary Dallenbach, Jackie Schrader, Carol Steimel, Patty Steimel, Rick Entz, Bruce Iverson, Joe Nelson, Chris Petersen, Sophomores--Kris Klingaman, Rae Morrison, Becky Sergeant, Sandy Witchey, Bob Bidwell, Randy Engel, Larry Fike, Steve Miles. Juniors--Deb Andreesen, Deb Buhr, Leah Ludwig, Rose Rendon, Steve Anderson, Wade Lamkin, Dennis Roberts, Bob Schwake. Seniors--Jill Pierce, Barb Smedley, Diane Soteros, Roxanne Uhde, Steve Chambers, Kim Jordan, John Lybbert, Jerry Saucke.

There go the donkeys.

Senior Laurie Dlouhy was elected queen from the six candidates and crowned the afternoon of the dance.

Dance Marks End Of Winter Sports

"Whispers of Spring," sponsored by the Speech and Drama Club, marked the end of the winter sports season and the beginning of spring.

For the dance, the senior class nominated six girls to vie for the title of queen. After the student body voted, the queen, Laurie Dlouhy, was crowned at an assembly Friday afternoon prior to the dance March 25.

The dance was the following night from 8 to 11 p.m. in the gym.

Miss Roberta Ladd, pictured taking tickets from Jeannine and Kathleen Westphal, co-sponsored the dance with Mrs. Karleen Waller.

Queen Laurie was escorted by senior letterman John Lyybert.

Deb Lowe, a member of Drama Club, helped serve the refreshments while Cindy Shirk and her date helped themselves to the refreshments.

The band, Threshhold, played from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Each of the candidates for queen was escorted by a senior letterman at the coronation Friday afternoon. The lettermen were Jim Buhlman, John Lyybert, Dale Rousselow, Scott Sergeant, Ron Shepard and Tony Wilber.

Tony Wilbur, after watching his weight during wrestling season, enjoyed the refreshments at the Whispers of Spring dance.

Some couples sat out a few dances at tables decorated with drip-candles.

Exchange student Mark Koerner got a glimpse of American parties at the dance.

While some students sat and talked, others enjoyed dancing.

Adventures In Jazz III, the third annual jazz concert directed by Richard Bond, played to a full house this spring.

Adventures in Jazz Plays to Full House

Before the program began, Mr. Bond took some time for a last-minute rehearsal with the players.

While Mr. Bond rehearsed his crew on stage, Mr. Crist rehearsed a vocal group backstage. Members of the group were Mike Saunders, Rod Moore, Diane Intermill, Chris Moore, Russ Stephens, Sue Theiss, Elaine Moore, Greg Travlos.

During the performance of one of the smaller groups in the jazz band, Kim Peiffer had a solo on trumpet.

Robin Formaker soloed on trumpet during a number played by the entire jazz band.

A variety of musical entertainment was offered the audience this year with the addition to the program of vocal numbers from this small group ensemble.

Steve Miles practices his drumming while three other jazz band members listen in.

The saxophone section added their talent to the audience's entertainment that night.

At the same time, other students like Cindy White and Don Barfels enjoyed dancing on the straw-covered floor.

Sadie Hawkins Is Farm—Out

Orange's last Sadie Hawkins dance proved to be successful. Sponsored by the Future Homemakers of Orange, the dance had music provided by Bamboo. The theme of the dance, "Farm Out," was carried out in the wall paintings, the straw bales and the blue jeans and rope belts of the students. A special attraction was a group of square dancers who entertained the group with a couple of dances.

This couple, patterned after Grant Wood's "American Gothic," was painted by the FHO decorating committee.

Chris Petersen took time out from the fun to be by himself.

Many of the students at the dance were nourished by suckers sold by the FHO girls.

We've Only Is Theme

Friends gathered in the front lounge area to discuss the evening's events.

While most couples chose to dance, Cheryl Clute and alumnus Jeff Fairbanks relax in the lounge.

Gary Petersen and Liz Ernster reflect back on their last high school prom.

Just Begun for Prom

The last junior-senior prom for the high school was May 20 at the UNI Commons Ballroom.

A banquet preceded the dance from 6 to 7 p.m. The couples danced to the music of "Stone Garden" from 7:30 to 11 p.m. Purple and pink were the colors. The ballroom was decorated in large paper flowers, streamers and drip-candles.

The junior officers in charge of prom were: Don Barfels, treasurer; Val Hickok, secretary; Rex Foster, vice-president; and Marcia Wier, president.

Junior sponsors were Mrs. Carolyn Cannon, Mrs. Patricia Meyer, and Mrs. Francis Nesbit. Mrs. Barbara was the faculty advisor for prom.

The couples waited in the lounge for the band to start playing after the banquet.

Stone Garden provided music for the couples from the decorated stage.

The couples attending prom had ample room to dance in the large ballroom.

Stone Garden Provides Music

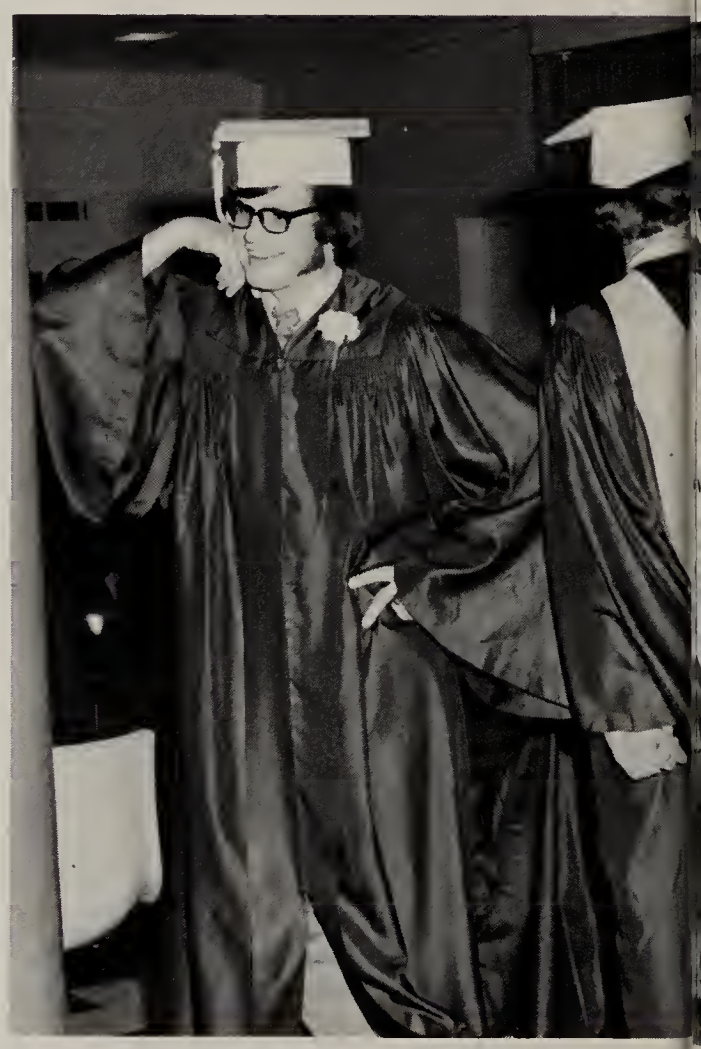
Mr. and Mrs. Miles talk with Mrs. Hodgson, who planned the banquet.

Kim Jordan, Mark Engel and their dates enjoyed a slow dance.

Three couples took a break from the dancing to talk and look over the programs.

Mr. Miles presided over the ceremonies held in the West High auditorium filled with parents, faculty and friends of the graduates.

Before the commencement began, some of the graduates congregated outside.



Last Class For Orange Is Fifty-Fourth

With the class motto, "Today we follow: tomorrow we lead" the last class for Orange High School went through the commencement exercises May 31 at West High.

Led by Robin Formaker, president; Sharon Forney, vice president; Scott Sergeant, secretary; and Kay Stevens, treasurer, the class was the last for the high school.

The address, "Largess," was given by Dr. George E. LaMore, Jr., of Iowa Wesleyan. The Orange concert band played Spring from "The Seasons" by Antonio Vivaldi.

The 110 seniors were presented their diplomas by Dr. Richard Wells, and the Rev. Donald L. Kline gave the invocation and benediction.

From the looks on their faces, the senior boys were in high spirits for graduation.

Head ushers Bill Steimel and Marcia Wier led in the Class of 1972.

Mrs. Cannon helped Linda Van Schoyck with her corsage while Holly Wingert waited.

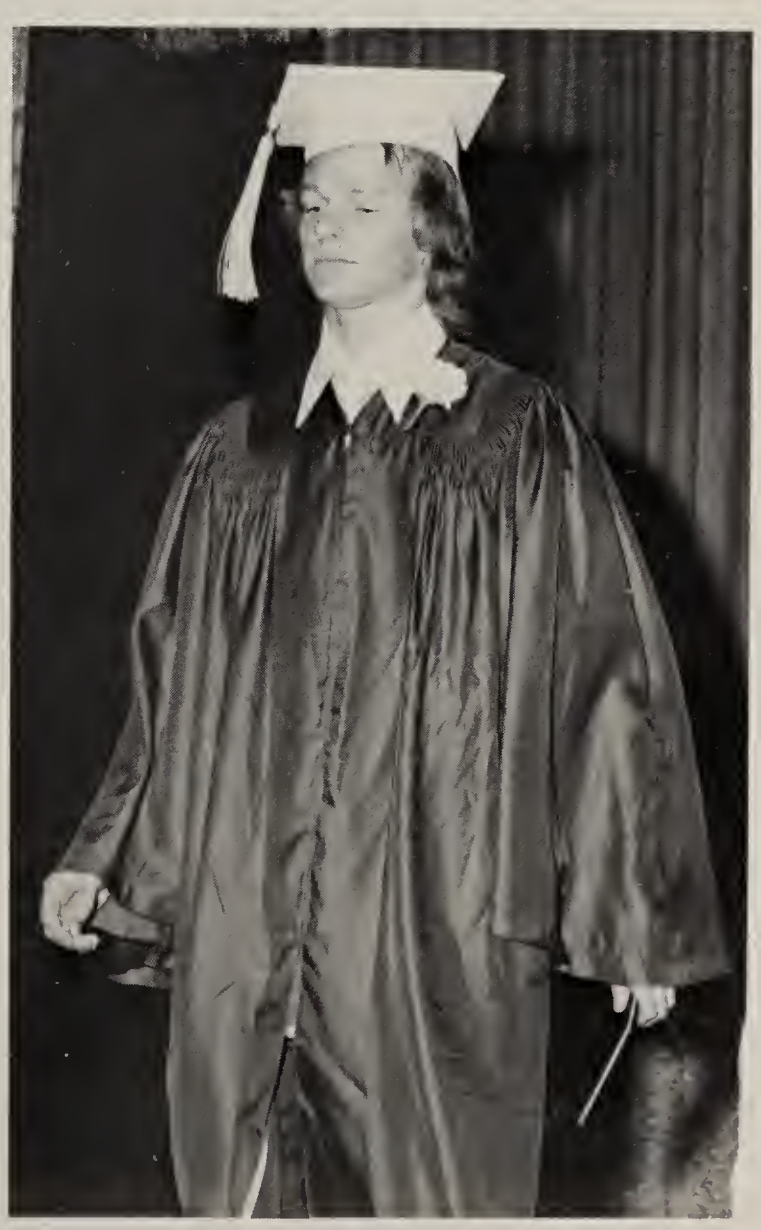
Dr. George E. LaMore, Jr., spoke to the class about expanding their perspectives in an address entitled "Largess."

Before the diplomas were presented, Russ sang "People," accompanied by Peg Harbaugh.

Dr. Richard Wells, school board member, handing out the diplomas as Mr. Miles read the names of the graduates.

For Roger Boatman, high school is now over.

Mark Koerner, Orange's exchange student from Chile, graduated with the class of '72.



Russ Stephens receives the Citizenship award from Mr. John C. Beekman, a Waterloo attorney.

Superintendent George H. Diestelmeier addresses the Class of 1972.

Cheryl Clute, Kathy Fairbanks and Ruth Lesch shared the honor of being the class valedictorians this year.

The Class of 1972 stood to be presented to the superintendent.

Liz Axline was the salutatorian for the Class of 1972.

Wrestlers Relax Before Work

While relaxing before a meet, the wrestling team members are entertained by Tony the Tiger.

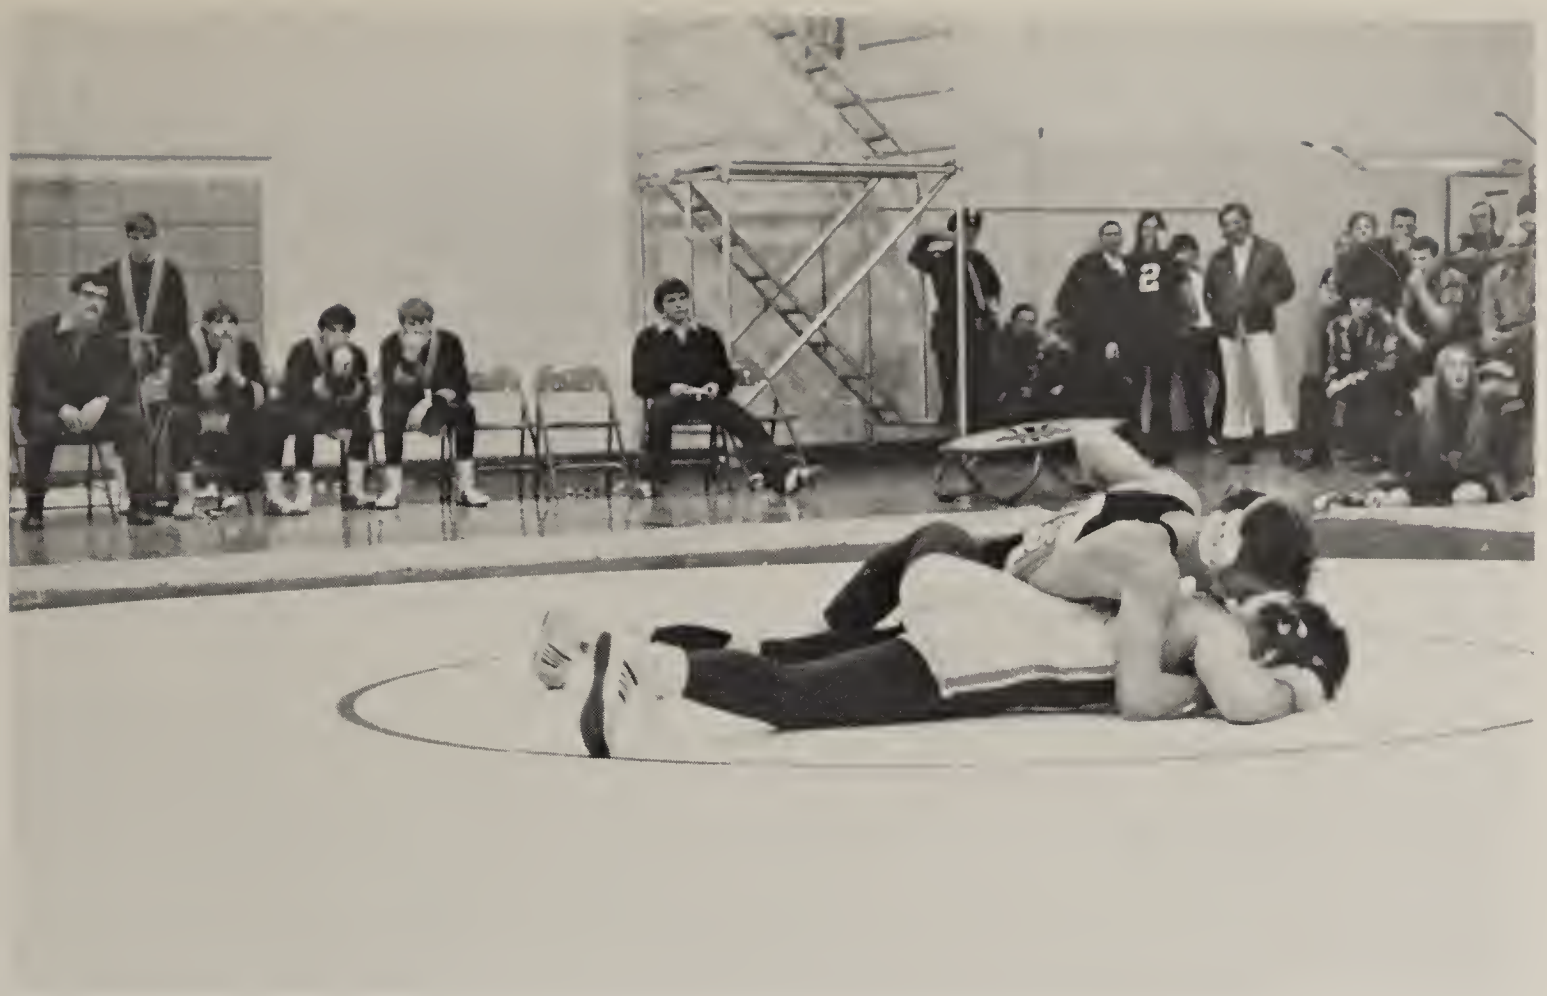
While Terry toils with his opponent, senior Stuart Natvig prepares to meet his rival.

In addition to the 11 dual meets this year, the team participated in three invitationals. At the Vinton Invitational, the Orange squad came in seventh with 22 points; at the Algona Invitational, they came in sixth with 45 points; and at the Orange Invitational the wrestlers came in sixth with 28 points.

During a wrestling meet, Coach Burnell presents a study in concentration.

The referee gives the Orange wrestler a point during his match.



Dennis tries to turn his opponent over for a pin during a meet with Jesup.

Don Barfels and some of the other Orange wrestlers rest on the mat before they have to work.

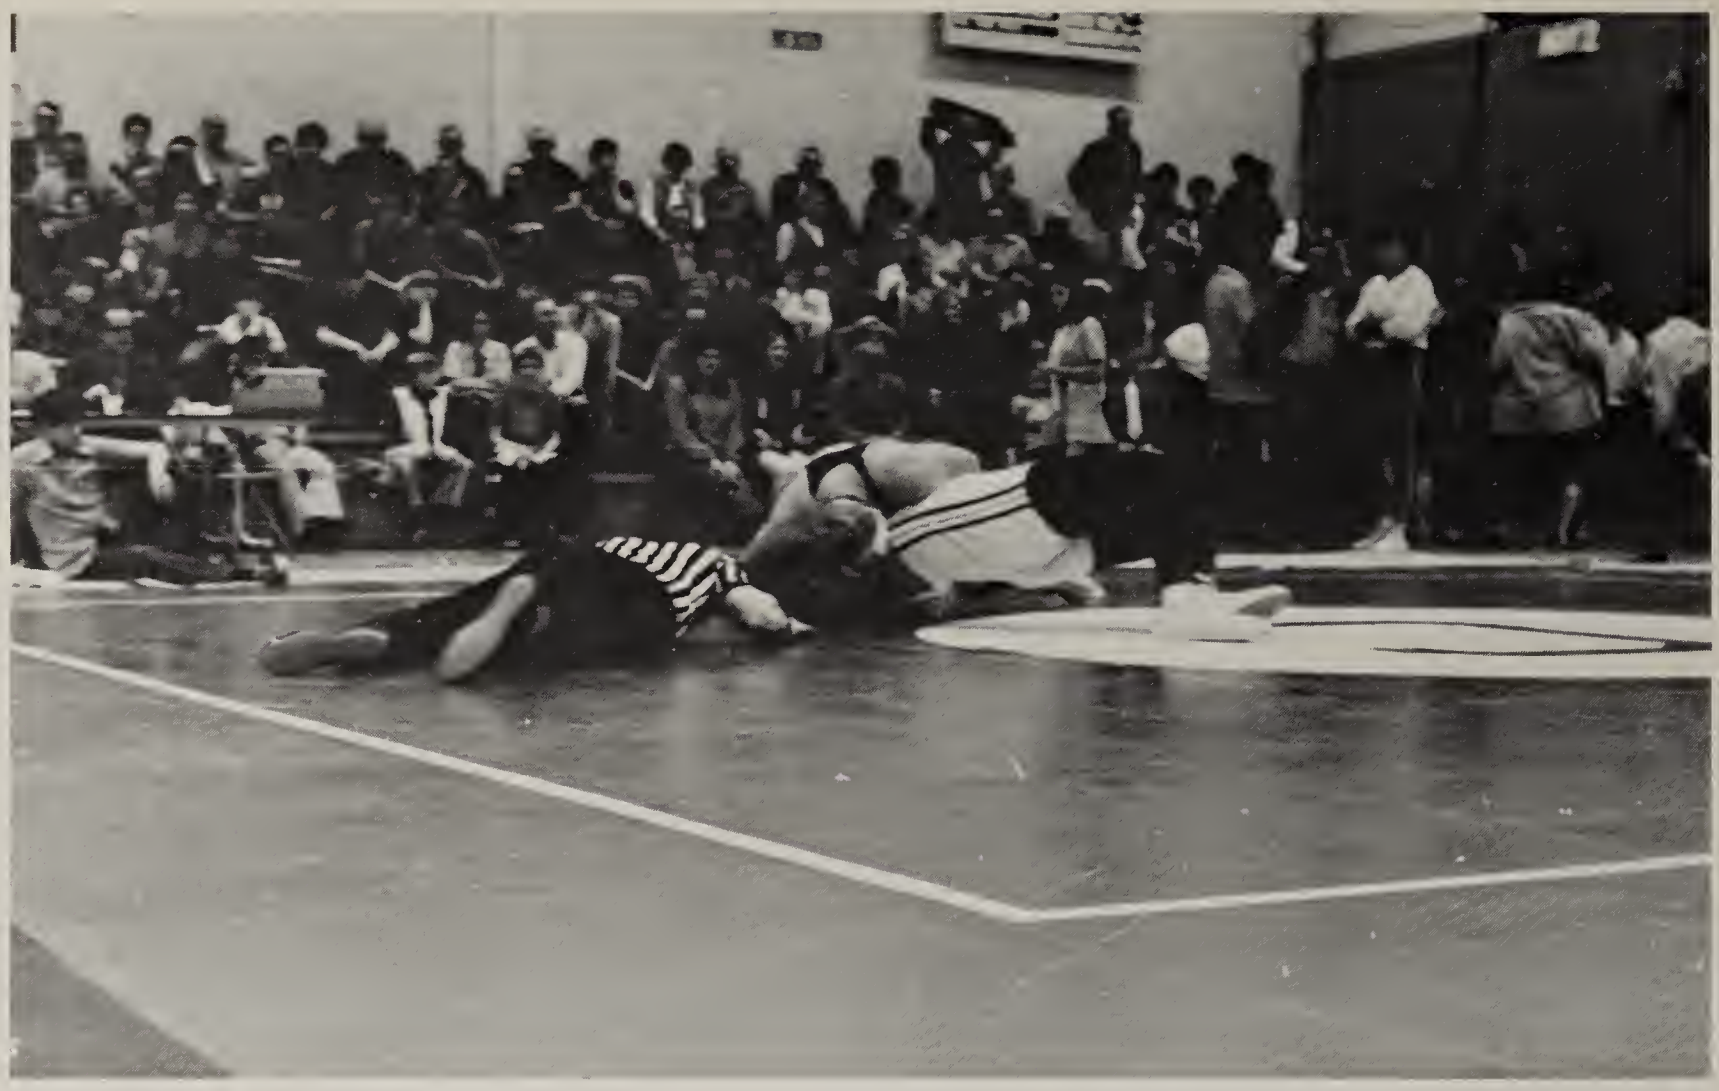
Heavyweight wrestler Dan Smith was ready for his match at the sectionals held at Starmont.

Randy Shepard, who placed at the sectionals, gets into his match at Starmont.



It's almost a pin as another Orange wrestler comes through in fine style.

Six Wrestlers Named by Conference

This year six wrestlers from the Orange squad made All-Conference teams in the North Iowa Cedar League. Junior Don Barfels and freshman Dan Smith both were named to the All-Conference second team. Senior Stewart Natvig, juniors Dennis Roberts and Randy Foulk, and sophomore Terry Jeffries made All-Conference Honorable Mention.

Dennis takes a cat nap on the way to a Tiger meet.

Two Qualify for Districts

This year at the sectional wrestling tournaments held at Starmont, Orange qualified two wrestlers for the districts held at Fayette. Those two were Stewart Natvig, at 98 lbs., and Dan Smith at heavyweight. Both wrestlers placed second.

Orange's wrestling squad also had five wrestlers who placed third in the sectional tournaments. They were Don Barfels, Randy Foulk, Ed Gates, Jay White and Randy Shepard.

Students Double As Librarians

The library club is service organization comprised of students who give up free periods to work in the library.

Their jobs vary from checking in and out magazines and books, shelving books, taking care of overdue book slips and fines, to making bulletin boards for the library.

This year's club went to the State Librarians Convention in the spring at Okoboji.

Mrs. Koeppel, library aide, and Mrs. Martin, head librarian, were helped by the student librarians with duties in the library.

Jazz Band Performs For Various Groups

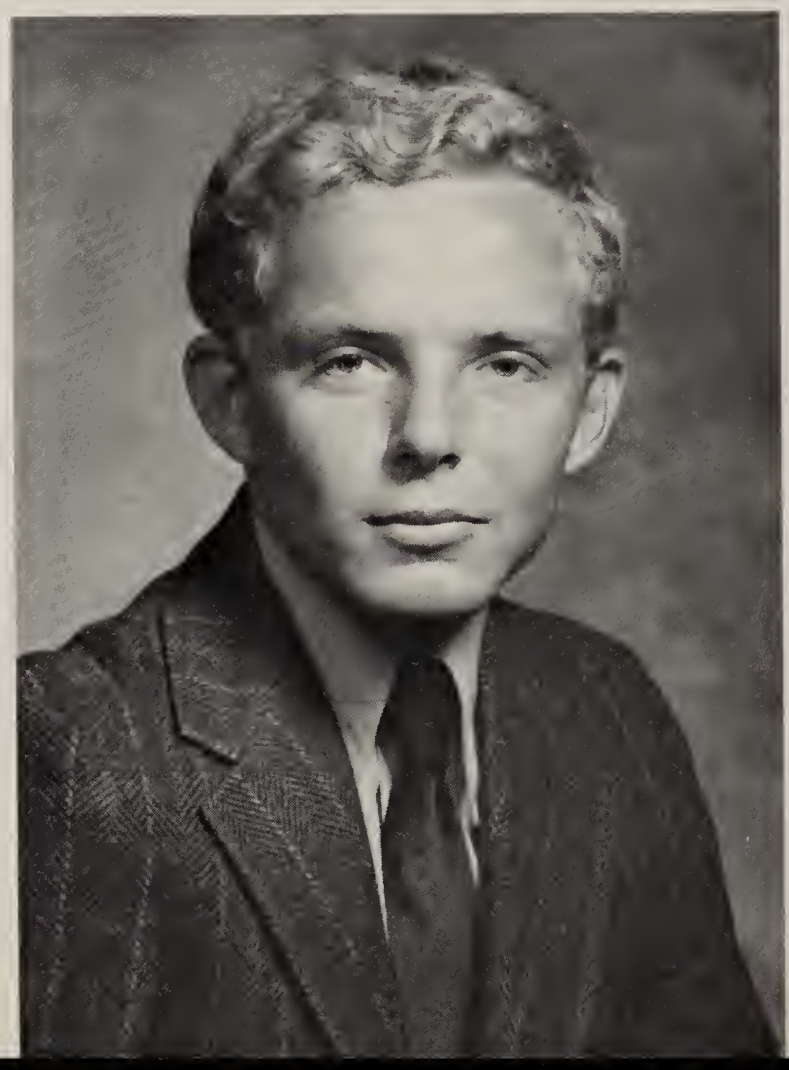
The band had another outstanding year this year. The marching band started off the season marching two of the three home games. Jill Pierce was drum majorette and really helped to keep the band together.

On Oct. 31, the jazz band performed at the Crossroads for American Education Week. The band received the largest audience of any musical group that week and was urged to play an encore number. December brought on the North Iowa Cedar League Band Festival. Dr. Karl Holvik, Director of Bands at UNI, was guest director.

In February the Jazz band played at Electric Park for the Members Mutual Cooperative. The band received a standing ovation, the first ever given by that audience to any part of the program. About 700 people were present.

Before the curtain opens, Mr. Bond gives the jazz band members a little pep talk.

Members of the newly-formed combo were, Steve Miles, Tony Wilber, Debbie Hartman, Chris Lybbert, Peg Harbaugh, Dana Peiffer, Kim Peiffer, and Jim Reisinger.



New Musical Group Formed

Tony Wilber was named the Bandsman of the Year at the final awards assembly.

Good Results At State Contest

A winter concert entitled "Winter Dimensions" was finally given March 9 after being postponed earlier due to bad weather. The spring concert, "Sounds of Spring," was presented April 20.

State solo and ensemble contest was held April 14-15 at Waverly. Those who represented Orange were Elaine Moore, flute solo, I rating; Carol Larsen, flute solo, II rating; Liz Axline, flute solo, II rating; Tony Wilber, alto sax solo, I rating; Kim Peiffer, trumpet solo, II rating; Jim Reisinger, trombone solo, II rating; Elaine Moore, Carol Larsen, Chris Moore, flute trio, II rating; and Tony Wilber, Stephanie Wilber, Chris Lybbert, Peg Harbaugh, sax quartet, I rating.

The jazz band gave many away performances during April and May, including the Recreation Center, Edison Junior High, Bunger Junior High, and Grundy Center High.

The year was brought to a close in high fashion with the "Adventures in Jazz III" concert. Many well-earned "gifts" were presented at the concert, much to the surprise of Mr. Bond.

This year's soloists were Carol Larsen, Tony Wilber, Jim Reisinger, and Kim Peiffer. Not pictured are Elaine Moore and Liz Axline.

This year the sax quartet received a I rating. Members are Peg Harbaugh, Chris Lybbert, Tony Wilber and Stephanie Wilber.

Singers Prepare Difficult Songs

In a continuing effort to establish a serious choral tradition in Waterloo, the A cappella Choir, Girl's Chorale, and KdF Singkreis spent a busy year preparing a challenging and varied array of works. Selections included Renaissance motets by John Amner and Gallus Dressler; the Romantic liturgical writing of Tschesnokoff and Gretchaninoff; the involved contemporary efforts of Jean Berger, Hugo Distler, F. Melius and Olaf Christiansen; and lastly the lighter spirituals, folk songs, and carols of Scandinavia and the southern United States.

Branch groups of the main choir are the Girls Chorale, various small ensembles and the KdF Singkreis--a workshop choir for preparing more advanced choral compositions. Presentations ranged from the Christmas and spring concerts and state small group contest, to video taping at KWWL-TV. Appearances at various community events and Baccalaureate completed the year's itinerary.

As F.M.'s "Psalm Fifty" unfolds, the questions mount--will the Soprano I think high on the opening phrase climax, will the Soprano II think descending intervals narrow on page thirty-two, will the tenors lighten up but not flat in doing so, will the bass and baritones recover the descending pitch level effected by the upper parts--and lastly, will the altos think . . .

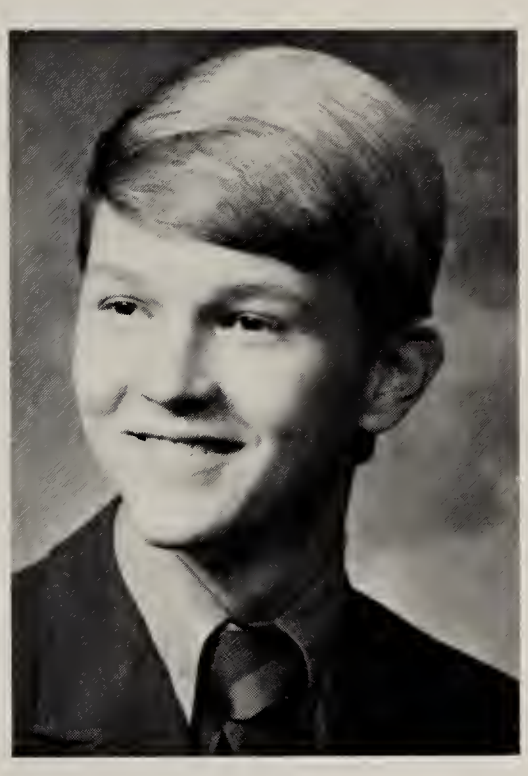
The Orange High School contingent of the "Olaf C. Christiansen Singkries," a summer touring choir founded and directed by L.D. Crist, is comprised of Mike Saunders, Diane Intermill, Greg Travlos, and Rod Moore. The group travels throughout Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota presenting in as artistic and polished a manner as possible the finest in unaccompanied sacred music. High point of the year was a rehearsal session with the group's namesake, Dr. Olaf C. Christiansen, retired director of the famed St. Olaf Lutheran Choir.



Most Outstanding Senior Choir Personnel were Russ Stephens and Mike Saunders.
